20 CFR 653.501
Assurances

INTRASTATE AND INTERSTATE CLEARANCE ORDER

The employer agrees to provide to workers referred through the clearance system the number of hours of work per week cited in Item 11 of the clearance order for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless the employer has amended the date of need at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need by so notifying the Order-Holding Office (OHO). If the employer fails to notify the OHO at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need, the employer shall pay eligible workers referred through the intrastate/interstate clearance system the specified hourly rate or pay, or in the absence of a specified hourly rate or pay, the higher of the Federal or State minimum wage rate for the first week starting with the original anticipated date of need. The employer may require workers to perform alternative work if the guarantee is invoked and if such alternative work is stated on the job order.

The employer agrees that no extension of employment beyond the period of employment shown on the job order will relieve the employer from paying the wages already earned, or specified in the job order as a term of employment, providing transportation or paying transportation expenses to the worker's home.

The employer assures that all working conditions comply with applicable Federal and State minimum wage, child labor, social security, health and safety, farm labor contractor registration and other employment-related laws.

The employer agrees to expeditiously notify the OHO or State agency by telephone immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over recruitment, or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment.

The employer, if acting as a farm labor contractor, has a valid farm labor contractor registration certificate.

The employer assures the availability of no cost or public housing which meets applicable Federal and State standards and which is sufficient to house the specified number of workers requested through the clearance system.

The employer also assures that outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the workers in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107.

Item 19: Transportation and subsistence

Pursuant to DOL regulations 20 CFR 655.122(h) (1) If the employer has not previously advanced such transportation and subsistence costs to the worker or otherwise provided transportation or subsistence directly to the worker by other means and if the worker completed 50% of the work contract period, the employer must pay the worker for reasonable costs incurred by the worker for transportation and subsistence from the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer, whether in the U.S. or abroad to the place of employment.

If prevailing practice of non-H-2A agricultural employers in the occupation in the area to do so, or when the employer extends such benefits to similarly situated H-2A workers, the employer must advance the required transportation and subsistence costs to workers in corresponding employment who are traveling to the employer's worksite. The amount of the transportation payment must be no less than the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation charges for the distance involved. The amount of the daily subsistence payment must be at least as much as the employer would charge the worker for providing three meals a day but no less than the amount permitted under 655.173 (a) which is presently $12.07 per day with CONUS maximum meal component $51.00 per day with receipts according to the current DOL Federal Register.

Note: the FLSA applies independently of the H-2A requirements and imposes obligations on employers regarding payments of wages.

655.122(h) (2) If the worker completes the work contract period, or if the employee is terminated without cause, and the worker has no immediate subsequent H-2A employment, the employer must provide or pay for the worker's transportation and daily subsistence from the place of employment to the place which the worker, disregarding intervening employment, departed to work for the employer.

- If the worker has contracted with a subsequent employer who has not agreed in such work contract to provide or pay for the worker's transportation and daily subsistence expenses from the employer worksite to subsequent employer worksite, the employer must provide or pay for such expenses.
- If the worker has contracted with a subsequent employer who has agreed in such work contract to provide or pay for the worker's transportation and daily subsistence expenses from the employer worksite to subsequent employer worksite, the subsequent employer must provide or pay for such expenses.
- The employer is not relieved of providing or paying for return transportation or subsistence if an H-2A worker is displaced as result employer compliance under 50% rule, per 655.135(d).

655.122(h) (3) The employer must provide transportation between the housing provided or secured by the employer and the employer's worksite at no cost to the worker.

655.122 (h) (4) All employer -provided transportation must comply with all applicable Federal, State or local laws and regulations and must provide at a minimum the same transportation safety standards, driver licensure and vehicle insurance as required under 29 USC 1841, and 29 CFR 500.105 and 29 CFR 500.120 to 500.128.

OTHER CLARIFICATIONS AND ASSURANCES:

TERMINATIONS: The employer may terminate the worker with notification to the Employment Service if the worker: (a) refuses without justified cause to perform work for which the worker was recruited and hired; (b) commits serious acts of misconduct.

In the event of termination for medical reasons occurring after arrival on the job, or occurring as a result of employment, or in the event of termination resulting from an Act of God, the employer will pay or provide reasonable costs of return transportation and subsistence to the place of recruitment. Additionally, the employer will reimburse worker for reasonable costs of transportation and subsistence incurred by the worker to get to the place of employment.

In accordance with Departmental regulations 20 CFR sec. 655.122(o), "if, before the expiration date specified in the work contract, the services of the worker are no longer required for reasons beyond the control of the employer due to fire, weather, or other Act of God that makes the fulfillment of the contract impossible, the employer may terminate the work contract. Whether such an event constitutes a contract impossibility will be determined by the CO. In the event of such termination of a contract, the employer must fulfill a three-fourths guarantee for the time that has elapsed from the start of the work contract to the time of its termination, as described in paragraph (i)(1) of this section. The employer must make efforts to transfer the worker to other comparable employment acceptable to the worker, consistent with existing immigration law, as applicable. If such transfer is not affected, the employer must: (1) Return the worker, at the employer's expense, to the place from which the worker (disregarding intervening employment) came to work for the employer, or transport the worker to the worker's next certified H—2A employer, whichever the worker prefers; (2) Reimburse the worker the full amount of any deductions made from the worker's pay by the employer for transportation and subsistence expenses to the place of employment; and (3) Pay the worker for any costs incurred by the worker for transportation and daily subsistence to that employer's place of employment. Daily subsistence must be computed as set forth in paragraph (h) of this section. The amount of the transportation payment must not be less (and is not required to be more) than the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation charges for the distances involved."

EMPLOYER FURNISHED TOOLS AND EQUIPMENT: The employer will furnish without costs, all tools, supplies, or equipment required in the performance of work.

INJURIES: The employer will provide Workers Compensation or equivalent employer provided insurance, at no cost to the worker, covering injury and disease arising out of, and in the course of, the worker's employment. Employer's proof of insurance coverage will be provided to the ETA office before certification is granted.

EMPLOYER OBLIGATION IF EMPLOYMENT IS EXTENDED: No extension of employment beyond the period of employment specified in the job order will relieve the employer from paying the wages already earned, or, if specified in the job order as a term of employment providing return transportation or paying return transportation expenses to the worker.

TERMS AND CONDITION CHANGES: The employer will expeditiously notify the order holding office or State agency by telephone/writing immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over-recruitment, or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment.

OUTREACH WORKERS: Outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the worker(s) in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107 and 20 CFR 653.501.

CONTRACT IMPOSSIBILITY: In accordance with Departmental regulations 20 CFR sec. 655.122(o) “if, before the expiration date specified in the work contract, the services of the worker are no longer required for reasons beyond the control of the employer due to fire, weather, or other Act of God that makes the fulfillment of the contract impossible, the employer may terminate the work contract. Whether such an event constitutes a contract impossibility will be determined by the CO, In the event of such termination of a contract, the employer must fulfill a three-fourths guarantee for the time that has elapsed from the start of the work contract to the time of its termination, as described in paragraph (i)(1) of this section. The employer must make efforts to transfer the worker to other comparable employment acceptable to the worker, consistent with existing immigration law, as applicable. If such transfer is not affected, the employer must: (1) Return the worker, at the employer’s expense, to the place from which the worker (disregarding intervening employment) came to work for the employer, or transport the worker to the worker’s next certified H— 2A employer, whichever the worker prefers; (2) Reimburse the worker the full amount of any deductions made from the worker’s pay by the employer for transportation and subsistence expenses to the place of employment; and (3) Pay the worker for any costs incurred by the worker for transportation and daily subsistence to that employer’s place of employment. Daily subsistence must be computed as set forth in paragraph (h) of this section. The amount of the transportation payment must not be less (and is not required to be more) than the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation charges for the distances involved.”

PROOF OF RIGHT TO WORK: All workers under this order will be required to provide documentation attesting to U.S. citizenship or legal status to work in the U.S.

AGRICULTURAL WORK AGREEMENT (ETA 790/ATTACHMENTS): A copy of the agricultural work agreement contract or the ETA 790 and attachments will be provided to the worker by the employer no later than on the day the work commences.

NUMBER OF WORKERS: The employer expects the total number of workers to be used in this occupation to be 50 of which 40 will be H-2A workers for which certification is requested, and the balance will be domestic workers. These numbers are estimates as total workforce needs are dependent upon weather, crop conditions and worker availability.

FIFTY PERCENT RULE: From the time the foreign workers depart for the employer’s place of employment the employer must provide employment to any qualified, eligible U.S. worker who applies to the employer until 50 percent of the period of the work contract has elapsed. Start of the work contract timeline is calculated from the first date of need stated on the application for temporary employment certification under which the foreign workers who is in the job was hired. UNLESS the employer has requested a small business exemption to the 50 percent rule and the waiver was granted by the DOL Certifying Officer.

OTHER: The employer agrees to abide by the regulations at 20 CFR 655.135 Assurances and 20 CFR.653.501.

20 CFR 655.135(e) The employer must comply with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, including health and safety laws.

Variable weather conditions apply; hours may fluctuate (+/-), possible downtime and/or OT. Employer will comply w/ applicable Federal, State, local laws pertaining to OT. DOE Reasonable repair cost intentional damage deducted from workers' pay. Employer will furnish the worker on or before each payday worker's hours & earnings statements. Earnings records & statements will be available upon request of the worker or worker representative. Workers who voluntarily abandon employment or are terminated for cause & where employer provides timely notification to NPC-DHS, will relieve the employer for subsequent transportation & subsistence costs & the 3/4 guarantee. Employer may terminate work contract where services are no longer required for reasons beyond employer's control due to fee, weather, or other Acts of GOD (Whether such an event constitutes a contract impossibility will be determined by the GO); & the assurance that 3/4 guarantee will be provided between the start & termination dates, make efforts to transfer worker to other comparable work acceptable to the worker, & if transfer is not viable, provide outbound transport & subsistence. Worker will be provided a copy of the work contract, including modifications, on the day work commences or as soon as practically possible. 1st week wage guarantee: $402. Employer is obligated to pay worker(s) for any costs incurred by worker for transport-daily subsistence to the employer's place of employment.

The working conditions will comply with applicable Federal and State minimum wage, child labor, social security, health, and safety, farm labor contractor registration and other employment-related laws. The employer is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer and will offer U.S. workers at least the same opportunities, wages, benefits and working conditions as those which the employer offers or intends to offer to non-immigrant workers.
